

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. OF THE

Louisiana State Library,

1869.

ALBERT BOVEE,

STATE LIBRARIAN.

NEW ORLEANS:

PRINTED AT THE REPUBLICAN OFFICE, 94 CAMP STREET.

1869.

Gen. lib
11-6-1931

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The Library shall be open to the public daily [days of public rest excepted] from the hour of ten in the morning till three in the afternoon ; and during the session of the General Assembly, till seven in the afternoon.

The Librarian shall preserve order, and enforce the rules of the Library.

Persons visiting the Library should in no case remove books from the shelves or replace them, but apply to the Librarian or his assistant for that purpose.

Any member of the General Assembly during the session thereof and any State officer is permitted to take from the Library any act or document of the State, duplicates whereof are contained in the Library, but in no case can such book be removed from the State buildings.

Any member of the Assembly so taking a book from the Library must return the same on or before the last day of the then session of the General Assembly ; and no State officer can retain a book longer than one week from the date of its removal.

No person shall be permitted to remove any book from the Library otherwise than as above specified.

Three days before the day fixed for the adjournment of any session of the General Assembly, the Librarian shall demand, either in writing or by his assistant, from each member of the House or Senate, having any book or books belonging to the Library, the return thereof within forty-eight hours.

After the expiration of said forty-eight hours, the Librarian shall immediately make out a list of the members of each House who have omitted to return any books belonging to the Library, specifying the volumes retained by each. The Librarian shall forthwith deliver to the President of the Senate the list relating to that body, and to the Speaker of the House the list relating to the members of that body.

In his Annual Report the Librarian shall report to the General Assembly the title of every book missing from the Library since the catalogue of the previous report, together with the names of the persons who appear from the entries of the Librarian to have borrowed and retained the same.

GEORGE E. BOVEE,
Secretary of State.
